It Came Upon

It came upon the midnight clear That glorious song of old; From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold. Peace on earth good will to men From heaven's all gracious King The world in solemn stillness lay To hear the angels sing.

Still thru' the cloven skies they come With peaceful wings unfurled And still their heavenly music floats Through all the weary world. Above the sad and lowly plains They bend on hovering wing And ever o'er the Babel sounds The blessed angels sing

And ye beneath life's crushing loads Whose forms are bending low Who toll along the climbing way With painful steps and low Look now for glad and golden hours Come swiftly on the wing Of rest beside the weary road And hear the angels sing. Written by W.J.Pais

For lo the days are hastening on By prophet bards foretold When with the ever circling years Comes round the age of gold When peace shall over all the earth Its ancient splendors fling The whole wide world gives back the song Which now the angels sing
