

Christmas Woods

Written by W.J.Pais

rural campsite,

ashag, photo-collage, ferris As for old so it comes to be morning enchantment unfolding beyond the trees...

dawn hush whispering

persisting peaceful presence darkness gently yielding dazzle defining slowly redemption tableau revealed star glow of prophecy fulfilled gentle mother quiet comforting, foster father caring concerned, shepherds reverently present,

unto us a child is born unto us a Savior given

Emmanuel - God is with us!

terryq: dec.2010

And with a message like that we can live lives of comfort and hope knowing that in the long run (and in quite a number of short runs as well) all will fall into place and be well.

Emmanuel - God is with us!

Christmas blessings

and New Year peace

to you !!

All else well here as I enjoy the break and look forward to happy surprises in the coming year!

Lots of these for you and all of the family too.

Love, Terence Quadros, s.j.
