Written by W.J.Pais

All that we see and feel are the result of the Spirit which we can not see, but can try and understand. Everything around us, has a purpose, then why not we? Are we made only to enjoy the fruits and not honor truth and goodness?