For a source of information which these days the controlled media of today will not give and no clear opinions too are fuzzed, the only way you can know is from listening and getting what the opposition wants to tell you. You Tube a foreign company gives it to you. If euphoria of capitalist dreams are peddled the people are confused. In reality their day to day experiences are of high prices, lower bank interests, a fact. What is the motive behind all this ? So to safeguard the interests of your children and grandchildren which are at stake. Do you want the grandchildren to blame their grandparents ? Look at the homeless in Capitalist America ?
